Wm. Browning died at Salem March 4, aged 46 years. He married, in 1899, Miss Olive Davis. He would often say during his last sickness, trusting to the good Lord that all would come right, he would soon meet his mother. Willing hands did all they could in this sad bereavement.

Morrow county has a dozen townships of mountain timber lands that will some day yield immense incomes to lumbermen and fuel dealers.

FROZEN SHEEP.

Great indignation has been stirred up id Maine on account of sheepraisers put ting flocks on hundreds of falands along the coast and leaving them to go through the winter without shelter. Thousands have starved and frozen.

Bables and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.
